

Please do not overturn or water down NJ's Do Not Call law. It's been a pleasure to have peaceful dinner hours again and I (and millions more like me) dread a return to unsolicited phone calls made to my home during the evening hours. Allow me the sanctity of my family life! Thank you.